

TAFT REFUSES TO COMPROMISE

President Will Not Make Terms with T. R. Over Presidential Electors in Any State

WASHINGTON, July 18.—No compromise with Roosevelt over the presidential electors in any state, was President Taft's ultimatum to Senator Gamble and Representative Burke of South Dakota, who came to confer on their political mix-up.

The regular republican electors in South Dakota have announced that they will vote for the colonel. The compromise has been suggested that the republican electors vote for the candidate who secures the higher vote in the state. President Taft made it plain today that he is against this proposition and he indicated that he will demand a complete poll of the republican electors. Whenever they are for Roosevelt or doubtful the president will demand that they be opposed in the election by Taft men.

GET WRONG BODY OF WRECK VICTIM

All Ready for Funeral when it Is Found Woman's Body Is Not Mrs. Tudor

OSKALOOSA, Ia., July 18.—After plans had been perfected for the triple funeral of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Tudor and their daughter, of Lacey, killed in the Burlington wreck near Chicago, friends of Mrs. Tudor who live here, after viewing the body asserted that it was not Mrs. Tudor, but some other woman.

As the remains were badly mutilated there was no doubt until the family dentist who had recently cared for Mrs. Tudor's teeth, was sent for and after an examination he pronounced the body not Mrs. Tudor, and it was shipped back to the Chicago authorities. It is now supposed to be that of Mrs. S. C. Potter of Jackson, Mich. The dentist has gone to Chicago to examine the body of a woman in the morgue said to be Mrs. Potter, to see if it is not Mrs. Tudor. The funeral of Tudor and their little child was held at Lacey yesterday.

When a married woman wants her own way she is apt to get peeved if her husband insists on letting her have it.

$2,000,000 TO BE SPENT ON ROADS

Towns and Counties Prepare to Make Appropriations to Procure State Aid

The state highway commission is now sending out to all town chairmen blank forms on which to petition their respective county boards for county and state aid for roads or bridges to be built in 1913. These forms must be filled out by the town boards and mailed to the county clerks on or before Sept. 1, 1912.

Those towns which did not vote for state aid this spring still have a chance to do so by calling special town meetings to be held before September 1.

If the residents of any town or county desire the improvement of any part of the county system and the town in which the portion of road lies has not voted to improve it, they may collect a subscription of not less than $400 and the town board of that town may petition for aid just as if it had been voted by the town, provided the money is guaranteed to the town by the petitioners.

Under another clause of the law, any group of freeholders may force a town to make an improvement by paying into the town treasury one-sixth of the estimated cost of the work (not less than $200) and petitioning the town board before August 15. The town board then has to levy an equal amount and petition for the improvement.

Counties desiring to do work as counties (omitting the towns) may do so by voting a county tax previous to October 1.

Copies of the state aid road law and of the various petitions will be sent on request to the Wisconsin Highway Commission, Madison.

Reports of votes so far would indicate that at least $2,000,000 worth of state aid roads and bridges will be built in 1913, and that towns in every county have or will vote taxes for improvements.

RUSHFORD, MINN.

The young ladies of the intermediate class of the Presbyterian Sunday school will hold an ice cream social and sale of fancy work at the park next Friday evening, July 19. All cordially invited.

Mrs. O. T. Carpenter and daughter of Chicago are the guests of Hon. Niles Carpenter and family in Brooklyn.

City Engineer McCormick, while raising a pump into position last week, was unlucky enough to let it fall upon his left foot, breaking the large toe. Though still lame, he is improving.

Mrs. Cummins and children of Faulkton, N. D., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hollenbeck in Brooklyn.

Mrs. H. Damen, the unfortunate lady on Highland Prairie who attempted suicide by hanging a few weeks ago, has been adjudged insane and committed to the asylum at Rochester.

Miss Mattie Larson has been a Houston visitor recently.

Mr. and Mrs. James Layne are guests of Ayres Layne and family of Brooklyn. Mr. and Mrs. Layne are from Lemmon, S. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Nash of Hills, Minn., are at the home of Mr. Nash's father.

New cement crossings have recently been put in between the First National bank and Locken's shoe shop and also between Drake's harness shop and Julrud Bros. store. Cement walks are also being laid on the south and west sides of the public library and in front of E. A. Lambert's home.

ODORLESS GAS IS CAUSE OF DEATH

Coroner Points Warning to Users of Gas Water Heaters in Houlihan's Death

Coroner Leonard Kleeber, returning today from Milwaukee, where he attended the first annual meeting of the National Coroner's association, gave out an interview which, beyond all doubt, settles the question of just what caused the sudden death of L. R. Houlihan, the Milwaukee road switchman, and which, incidentally, serves as a warning to other citizens against the possibilities of death from a source totally unexpected.

"The death of Houlihan," said Judge Kleeber this morning, "was undoubtedly due to accidental asphyxiation from inhaling what is known to the medical world as monoxide gas. This discovery should be a warning to La Crosse people to guard against a recurrence of the sad fate of Houlihan which was due to a cause not generally understood by La Crosse people."

"Gas heaters are known, in the cities, to be the cause of more than one death which heretofore have been recorded as gas asphyxiation. Water heaters in unventilated bathrooms have produced deaths similar to that of Houlihan's and which for a time baffled investigation. Gas heaters are made by setting a flame in the heater against coils containing water. The method of the water heater gives out an odorless carbon monoxide gas that is deadly poison. It is this gas that has killed many persons."

"This gas is doubly dangerous inasmuch as its effect upon a human is in many particulars different from that of ordinary illuminating gas. While the odor of illuminating gas may be detected almost immediately this is a subtle odor that is not noticeable and has only the effect to make the person affected drowsy."

"Its work is quick and sure and coroners from the large cities attending the convention in Milwaukee assert that deaths have occurred within twenty-five minutes after turning on the heater. There is no sign by which it can be detected, the swelling of the lips and throat all coming after the victim lost consciousness. It is beyond a doubt the belief that Houlihan lost his life due to the water heater in a poorly ventilated bathroom."

Hood Over Heater

"Experiments have proven, however, that by arranging a hood over the heater, so that the gases formed by the action of the gas flame on the water bearing pipes may be conveyed to the open air, danger is eliminated. The same danger lies in the use of gas stoves in poorly ventilated kitchens."

Mr. Kleeber played an important part in the first meeting of the National Coroner's association, being a member of the constitution and by-laws committee, which drew up all of the rules and regulations which govern the organization.

Mr. Kleeber reports an interesting meeting, the benefits of the educational features being inestimable.

HIDES FROM MOTHER

WIFE WHO ELOPED WITH FORMER SWEETHEART AND WAS BROUGHT BACK SECLUDES HERSELF

XENIA, Ohio, July 18.—Mrs. Pearl Rouse Shrontz, the young wife of Dr. W. E. Shrontz, who was apprehended in San Francisco July 6, after an elopement with Robert Warrington, 25, a sweetheart of earlier days, is living in seclusion somewhere in Ohio.

That she will not disclose her whereabouts even to her mother, Mrs. W. L. Rouse of Paintersville, this county, became known today through a letter received by Mrs. Rouse.

"Mother, I want your forgiveness for what I have done," the young woman wrote in substance. "I can never return to Paintersville. I won't give you my address now, for I do not want you to know where I am."

Mrs. Rouse, who is prominent in the Paintersville Methodist church, having been elected president of the Ladies' Aid society of the church, will not seek to pry into her daughter's secret. She will bide her time, believing that the daughter will come to her when the shock of notoriety becomes less severe.

CHARGED WITH PERJURING SELF IN HENNING-FUNK TRIAL, MISS AILEEN HEPPNER MUST FACE GRAND JURY IN CHICAGO

Miss Aileen Heppner, Mrs. John C. Henning and Clarence S. Funk

Enjoying her liberty only because someone was willing to sign her $5,000 bail bond, Miss Aileen Heppner is awaiting the action of a grand jury in Chicago, charged with perjury.

The story of how Miss Heppner has gotten into the hands of the law throws an interesting side-light on the Senator Lorimer scandal. Clarence S. Funk, general manager of the International Harvester company, testified in one of the Lorimer hearings that he had been approached by Edward Hines, who had asked for a contribution of $10,000 to be used in sending Lorimer to the senate.

Some time later, a suit was brought against Funk by John C. Henning for alienation of his wife's affections. Henning lost the case and disappeared. Then Mrs. Henning confessed before a grand jury that the suit was a "frame-up" for the purpose of destroying Funk's character and discrediting his testimony in the Lorimer case. She said she did not know of the suit until told by her husband that it had been commenced, and that she had never seen Funk.

Miss Heppner testified on the trial that she had seen Funk and Mrs. Henning together on various occasions. An effort was made by Miss Heppner's attorneys to have the perjury charges against her dropped, but without success.

DEPOSIT IN CURRENCY. We quote from a recent magazine article upon this subject:

"The extent to which credit instruments—checks—are used in the transaction of modern business annually in this country is positively amazing to those who believe that exchanges are made principally by money transfers from purchasers to sellers. In the last fifty years the check has practically superseded money in this country. Today, upward of 95 per cent of the bank's transactions consist of credit, the remaining five per cent requiring cash settlements. While we express our prices in business contracts or dealings in terms of gold, we pay them by means of checks and resort to gold but seldom in business settlements."

"All the varied forms of our currency—gold and silver certificates, legal tenders, and national bank notes—are used, of course, in ordinary business dealings; but their use is small compared to the employment of the check against a bank deposit."

"If any answer were necessary to rebut the claim of the believers in 'flat' money—who assert that what the country's banking and currency system requires is 'more money,' and who suggest the issuance of additional 'legal tender' money secured by public credit—the growth and service of our deposit-currency is emphatic, complete and adequate."

FOR DOWNS AND OUTS. In a plea for securing equal rights, political liberty, security of life and property for the European races in backward lands, Theodore Marburg, president of the Maryland Peace society, has an article in a late Independent in which he suggests a commission of the chancelleries of the world to include not only the eight leading powers, but Switzerland, Holland, Denmark, Norway, Sweden and Greece in the old world, and at least Argentina and Chile in the new world.

He urges that united action by such a number of powers would add greatly to the world's peace, and would go far toward seeing that justice is done to all. It would mean that justice would be imposed upon backward countries from outside. It would mean peace in almost every instance, because, as Mr. Marburg says, "the potential force latent in such a concert of powers need seldom translate itself into war."

Once equal rights are secured to backward countries, the writer shows that the enlightened and progressive races migrating to such countries "should themselves be able to obtain laws and institutions making for security and justice. Where political equality does exist, unbearable conditions may be swept away without violent revolution."

Of the Monroe doctrine, Mr. Marburg says: "The Monroe doctrine has prevented and is preventing strife between European powers themselves for the possession of South American territory, as well as bloody wars against South American peoples, some of whom would undoubtedly put up a stiff fight against the more powerful enemy. Whether the Monroe doctrine is a wise or just doctrine or not, the fact remains that it has come to be a settled policy of the United States, and must be dealt with as such even by Americans who may find fault with it. For the present the situation at home is so delicate that no European country is likely to make war on the United States on account of the doctrine."

As to the ethics of intervention in the affairs of backward nations, Mr. Marburg declares that this practice would be far preferable to the present regime, with its "manifest crudities and temptations. The fact that the civilized world cannot take consistent joint action for the betterment of conditions everywhere does not excuse it from acting where it can."

In closing, he quotes the words of Frederick Degate, shortly after the American conquest of Porto Rico: "When you bring praises and flowers to the conquerors of Porto Rico, bring them not to your soldiers, but to the men who wrote your Declaration of Independence, and to the men who framed your constitution."

In other words, the doctrine of intervention means "not by might" as in the former interpretation of the word phrase, but "by right." It is a reversion of the ordinary theory and practice of nations. And its significance must not be lost sight of in these days when prophets are arising who insist that we must write new and glittering doctrines which consist of promises, rather than of performances. The best justification of the past is seen in the attitude of Porto Rico's leader. We are progressive in his eyes.

Meeting a citizen from Montana the bishop, who will have much traveling to do, asked: "How it is out there in winter?"

"Oh, it gets a little chilly, in fact, quite biting, along in the early morning," explained the man, "but by noon it warms up—moderates considerably."

"Ah, I see," smiled the bishop. "Yep," explained the Montana man in all seriousness, "you may find it 36 below zero when you get up in the morning, and by noon it will have moderated until the thermometer may show only 30 below."

"The afternoons of such balmy days," suggested Bishop Luccock, "are given over to gardening?"

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

Canopus. When quacks with pills political would do us, When politics absorbs the livelong day, I like to think about the star Canopus, So far, so far away.

Greatest of visioned suns, they say who list 'em; To weigh it science always must despair. Its shell would hold our whole darned solar system And never know 'twas there.

When temporary chairmen utter speeches, And frenzied henchmen howl their battle hymns, My thoughts float out across the cosmic reaches To where Canopus swims.

When men are calling names and making faces, And all the world's ajangle and ajar, I meditate on interstellar spaces And smoke a mild seegar.

From Bad to Worse. Senator Bristow, apropos of Independence day, was analyzing in Salina the troops under Cornwallis during the Revolution.

"And in the end," he said, "they became so panic-stricken that they were like Blanc's wife. 'Blanc's wife, you know, whenever a shutter rattled or a board creaked, would wake up her husband and say: 'Oh, John, there are burglars downstairs! Don't you hear them? Oh, what shall we do?'"

"But Blanc hit at last on an idea that, he thought, would compose his wife permanently. 'Look here,' he said, 'you can rest assured those noises aren't burglars. Burglars work in absolute silence. You never hear a sound from them.'"

Senator Bristow smiled. "And now," he said, "Mrs. Blanc wakes her husband up in a blue panic whenever there's no noise." —Detroit Free Press.

He Wasn't Far Wrong. Elisha Dyer, New York's cotillon leader, returned from Europe recently and a reporter asked him if the duty he was paying on a large stock of London clothes would not make them cost more than he would have paid for them in New York.

"Well, even so," Mr. Dyer replied, "we need have no regret about the cost of our wardrobes. Look at the unfortunate ladies!"

"I have just left Paris, where all the smart women are wearing delicate little white straw bowlers hat mounted in front with bunches of white aigrettes as thick as your wrist. To be without one of these hats is to be shabby, and yet, simple as they are, they cost as much as $150 each."

"Last month an American girl enticed her husband into a shop on the Rue Royale and tried a bowler hat with a huge aigrette. 'How do you think this looks, John?' she asked. 'Hm! It looks to me like a month's salary,' he said." —Washington Star.

A Frightful Shock. The president of the university had dark circles under his eyes. His cheeks were pallid; his lips were trembling; he wore a haunted expression. Every now and then he turned and glanced apprehensively behind him.

"You look ill," said his wife. "What is wrong, dear?" "Nothing much," he replied. "But I—I had a fearful dream last night and I feel this morning as if I—as if I— He hesitated and stammered. It was evident that his nervous system was shattered. "What was the dream?" asked his wife.

"I—I dreamed that the trustees required that—that I should—that I should pass the freshman examination for admission!" sighed the president.—Youth's Companion.

Maid and the Weather. A Richmond woman has in her employ a colored cock who has managed to break nearly every variety of article that the household contains. The mistress's patience reached the limit recently when she discovered that the dusky servant had broken the thermometer that hung on the house porch.

"Well, well," sighed the lady of the house in a more resigned way, "you've managed to break even the thermometer, haven't you?" The maid replied in a tone equally resigned, "Yessum; and now we'll have to take de weather just as it comes, won't we?" —Lippincott's.

MRS. MORROW DENIES

CHICAGO CLUBWOMAN IS COOL AND COLLECTED AS SHE DENIES CHARGES OF KILLING HUSBAND

CHICAGO, July 18.—Nerved for the ordeal of an entire day of merciless questioning by attorneys for the state who are trying to prove her guilty of killing Charles B. Morrow, her husband, Mrs. Rene B. Morrow, society woman and prominent club member, sat in the witness chair yesterday in Judge Kersten's court.

Her chin was set at a firm angle, and her voice did not betray any nervousness. Only once did she show any sign of excitement. That was when she was asked the direct question: "Did you shoot and kill your husband?" Lifting herself half out of the chair, she leaned toward the attorney and her eyes snapped as she shouted: "No, no!"

Mrs. Morrow concluded her testimony before the noon adjournment and three other witnesses were called by the defense. It was believed that the case would be given to the jury tomorrow. At the conclusion of her testimony, the accused woman testified that on three occasions she had taken a revolver from her husband to prevent his killing himself.

Mrs. Hattie Pitkin, who lived near the Morrow home, said that she was passing there on the night of the death of Morrow, and that she heard two revolver shots from somewhere in the rear of the house. When she reached a small passage-way between the Morrow home and the one adjoining, she testified a man excitedly ran out of Morrow's house, brushed against her, muttered something she did not understand, and hurried on down the street.

XIV. Misfortune.

Naturally, my first impulse was to follow him. There were many things that I should have liked to ask him, many questions he might have answered, willingly or perhaps for money, or, failing that, to save his stringy neck. That he was in reality an ordained minister, with the right to perform the marriage ceremony, I had doubted from the very first. Nevertheless, there was always the bare possibility that he was some renegade of the cloth, fallen from what small grace he might once have possessed, yet still in his debasement retaining the power of his ordination, to misuse in any shady transaction to which fear or cupidity might lead him. And if he was a minister, the probability was that our marriage was legal, that Nancy was really mine, and the power of law my right and able ally. Above all things I should have liked to know whether I could claim her openly, as was my right, or must take her back, as she had been taken from me, by sheer force and by the right of love alone.

And yet I did not follow him. There was a chance—a bare chance—that he had not recognized me, and that his presence in this low dive was simply a fortuitous happening on his weak and shameful road. If I followed him and questioned him, he must of course recognize me, and, finding me in New York instead of Marbury, might guess Nancy's disappearance, or, at any rate, through my presence, have a secret worth the telling. It was better, I thought, to chance it, and if he had recognized me—well, the harm was done, and Ephraim Bond or the man in the brown derby, or perhaps both of them, could take what profit they might from my presence in New York.

As I sat waiting for my anonymous correspondent, it seemed to me more and more probable that this meeting had not been a chance one; as time passed and my correspondent did not appear the thought took on a certainty. But by whom, I wondered, had he been employed, if he had been employed at all. I had met him as the creature of Ephraim Bond, but if that tricky old gentleman had sent him here, then Bond himself must have been party to Nancy's disappearance, which was sheer confusion, for Stevens had not followed me into the bar, but had been there upon my arrival, which meant either that he was there by chance, or could only mean that my advertisement for Oscar Slater had fallen into the hands of the man in the brown derby, who, remembering the clues that he had left in mine, had thought of this possibility in my search, and, on the chance, had arranged this pretended meeting. The place and the incongruous mystery of it all lent color to the idea, for either my mere appearance had been all that my correspondent desired, or something had gone wrong with his plans, for, although I waited for an hour, no one spoke to me. Occasionally the doors would swing, and some beary delfict from the world without would stumble into the bar, to lounge over a drink for a few minutes, and then stumble stupidly out again. From time to time the scarlet-faced bartender would refill their glasses with beer, but in all the full hour I waited, the men who had been Stevens' drinking companions scarcely shifted their positions, nor did either of them turn so that I could see his face. They were men, I noticed, of much the same pattern; young men, I thought, whose nondescript old clothes covered bodies that drink had not yet begun to weaken.

At the end of an hour I got up in disgust. I had had small hopes of learning anything really valuable, and yet I was disappointed and vaguely troubled; for not only had I learned absolutely nothing, but there was a very fair chance that I had been watched, or at least recognized, and that the people who had taken Nancy away from me would know before morning what methods I was taking to find her. I paused at the door to give one last glance about the grimy little place. I had pushed back my chair noisily, yet no one had taken the trouble to watch my leave-taking. The bartender was mopping spilled beer with a dirty rag. Some nondescript was leaning against the bar's farther end; and the two men who had been there since my coming still hunched together like two dreary scarecrows. I let the door swing behind me, and took a long thankful breath of the clean night air. Even Seventh Avenue seemed fresh and sweetly fragrant after the stale noisomeness that I had left behind; so that I walked along filling my lungs in grateful relief, with the thankful anticipation of the hot bath awaiting me.

What impulse it was that made me turn around I can not say. We all of us, I suppose, retain a few primal creature instincts. Man has been a hunter for too few centuries to forget the ages when he was hunted. As I turned, half the empty block back I saw two men swerve into the shadow of a doorway. At least it seemed to me that my turning had so made them swerve. And although I had got but a glimpse of them, and that a none too well-lighted half block away, yet I thought I recognized them as the comrades of the Reverend Mr. Stevens. If I was being followed I determined that the chase should not be an easy one. I turned briskly at the first corner in the direction of Sixth Avenue, and when I had gone a little way, stepped, myself, into a convenient shadow. As I half expected, my two men turned the corner after me, but evidently they were not to be fooled into passing me. The street, as far as they could see, was empty; but they knew that I could not have gone far, and they stood together on the corner like two drunken companions saying an interminable and garrulous good night. I suppose that I should have gone back to them; instead, I stole along as far as the shadow shielded me, and then, taking to my heels, ran at top speed for Sixth Avenue.

As I turned into Sixth Avenue, I heard the crescendo roar of the uptown elevated train behind me. It was faint and still in the distance, but I made the best of my speed for the intervening block, and took the stairs three at a time. Even as I bought my ticket the train hammered into the station. It was the work of a second, however, to drop the ticket in the box and ensconce myself in the train. All trains, I find, are perverse; but elevated trains are perversity personified. If you approach them in a leisurely manner, they slam their gates in your face; if you are in a hurry, they dawdle, gapping for a tardy arrival. As soon as I had taken my seat, I peered out upon the platform.

Father Elopers' Best Man. CHICAGO, July 18.—When Fred T. Peck and Miss Flora Shanahan, eloping from Grand Rapids, Mich., entered the marriage license bureau the first person they saw was the groom's father. Peck acted as best man.

Mustn't Cuss Lady's Dog. CHICAGO.—Judge Caverly ruled a gentleman has no business to tell a lady to "call off her dog," even when said dog has "tired him on a picket fence." The court fined the offender $1.

"Fish" to Live on Water. CHICAGO.—"Squeak, I'm a fish," yelled James O'Brien and jumped off the steamer Bethlehem, in an effort to reach his element. He was pulled out and given thirty days in the "Aquarium."

Would Tax Funerals. NEW YORK.—Because he asserts that most of the funerals that pass through Queensborough came from outside, Borough President Connelly wants each funeral cortege taxed one dollar for road improvement.

Using Northern Lane. NEW YORK.—Despite the fact that large fields of ice are reported on the "short course" near where the Titanic sunk, the liners are using that lane, and the Oceanic, just arrived, reported passing five bergs.

Little Men Trap Elephants. NEW YORK.—Two small men trapped and overcame Gunda, a Bronx zoo elephant, who had become crazed.

Would be Millionaires. NEW YORK.—In response to a millionaire's advertisement for a young wife, many girls visited Jamaica yesterday to try and fill the contract.

Steadfast Girl Fortune. NEW YORK.—Because she clung to her Jewish religion, while the rest of the family became Roman Catholics, Mrs. Anna Lewinthal came into a legacy of $28,000 from her uncle.

Whistle Loses Woman's Teeth. NEW YORK.—The blowing of the all-ashore whistle on the steamship Metaphor, which sailed to Jamaica, caused a nervous woman to open her mouth and drop her false teeth, postponing her voyage.

Proposal by Wire Mixed. COLUMBUS, O.—A proposal by telegraph from Joe Coluccio, Sacramento, Cal., read thus: "Excuse me, much obliged. Catherine Satoria, send telegram. I would very much like marry you. You will be my wife? Come to police court."

Near Drowning on Lawn. GRAND JUNCTION, Col.—While watering her garden, Mrs. S. S. McClellan, 88, slipped and fell, sustaining a broken shoulder. Being unable to rise she was nearly drowned by the garden hose which was turned directly on her.

Rookies Get Pajamas. CLEVELAND, O.—Recruits in the United States marine corps are being provided with "government" pajamas as part of the annual allowance for clothing.

Saved Friend; is Killed. CANTON, O.—Robert Butler was saved from death when the crushed body of his fellow workman, Charles Brennan, killed by a moving crane, knocked Butler from the path of the crane at the United States Steel company plant.

HELD FOR GIRL'S DEATH. BUTLER, Pa., July 18.—Denying that they gave 17-year-old Stella Hockenberry any alcoholic drinks, or drugs, Carl Snyder and Harry Kelter remained in jail today charged with a serious offense, while the police are looking for a third suspect in connection with the death of the pretty high school girl.

SPECIAL SESSION TO PICK MAN FOR TOGA

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 18.—Another special session of the general assembly, called for the purpose of electing a senator to succeed William Lorimer, was admitted today to be one of the possibilities as the result of the opinion of Attorney General Stead that Governor Deneen has no power to name a successor. It is declared to be practically certain that the governor would call the assembly together, if he is assured by the republican members that they will go into caucus and abide by caucus rules. He will call them here under no other arrangement, for it would be impossible for them to agree otherwise.

TURN DOWN SOCIALIST

ANCIENT ORDER OF HIBERNIANS REFUSES TO SEAT DELEGATE BECAUSE HE BELONGS TO PARTY

CHICAGO, July 18.—A second slap at socialism was delivered yesterday by the annual convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians when the credentials of Edward Norton of Wilmington, Del., president of his own county organization, were turned down. The reason given for not seating Norton as a delegate to the national convention was that he was a socialist and had been working recently as an organizer for that party in Wilmington. Norton admitted that he was a socialist and said that he had been one for the last ten years, only recently becoming active as an organizer.

LANGFORD AND JEANNETTE TRAINING FOR THEIR FIGHT AT VERNON ON JULY 18

Joe Jeannette and Sam Langford.

Before his recent fight with Jim Flynn, Jack Johnson announced that after he got through with the Pueblo fireman he would be willing to meet all kinds of hopes, black, white or otherwise, at the rate of one per week until all were vanquished. He included Sam Langford and Joe Jeannette in the list, declaring as to Langford, however, that he didn't like that fellow and wouldn't fight him for less than $30,000. This meant, of course, that Johnson wouldn't fight him at all, since no $30,000 crowd would ever get together to see the scrap. Johnson has recently declared that he doesn't care to meet either of his colored brethren of the ring before he retires. Jeannette and Langford are among the leading heavyweights of the present day.

NORTHWEST NEWS

MINNEAPOLIS GAS GOES INTO MERGER

MINNEAPOLIS, July 18.—With the taking over by the Emerson-Brantingham company interests of Rockford, Ill., of the gas traction company of Minneapolis, the latter has been made an adjunct to a syndicate capitalized at $50,000,000, which, next to the International Harvester company, will be the largest organization of its kind in the world. The announcement of the sale of the local concern was made today by Fred Glover, manager of the Gas Traction company, who goes to Rockford as vice president and general manager of the new corporation. It will increase its capitalization and take over several independent concerns. It will make all sorts of farm machinery.

WARDEN DEFENDS PAROLE SYSTEM

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 18.—Henry Wolfer of the Minnesota state prison at Stillwater takes exception to the criticism made by the National Sheriffs' association of the parole systems in the various states. Mr. Wolfer, who is also a member of the Minnesota state board of parole, declared the criticism could not be applied to the system as worked out in Minnesota, as results would show.

MADISON, Wis., July 18.—Congressman Lenroot of Superior on Wednesday filed nomination papers, seeking the republican nomination as representative from the Eleventh congressional district. His petition contained 300 signatures.

SHOOT AT CAMP DOUGLAS

CAMP DOUGLAS, Wis., July 18.—Tuesday morning having been scheduled for the pistol competition, all officers, non-commissioned, staff and musicians, reported on the range at 7 o'clock. Conditions being ideal, good scores resulted. Captain Abner, I. S. A. P., was high man for the two courses, sharpshooter and expert, with a total of 401. Lieutenant Hills of company B was high expert with 221.

WISCONSIN NEWS

SCHMITZ TO OPEN HEADQUARTERS SOON

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 18.—Adolph J. Schmitz, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, will open state headquarters in the Plankinton house this week. The work of running the campaign for Mr. Schmitz will be in the hands of an experienced man, who has not been named.

"I have two men in view, one from Milwaukee, the other from the upper part of the state, but I have not decided which one to choose," said Mr. Schmitz last night. "Both are good men and will make a good fight for me."

DIES UNDER TRAIN; FRIEND IS HELD

JANESVILLE, Wis., July 18.—Frank Schmidt, Marquette, Mich., is held pending a verdict of the coroner's jury, charged with having stabbed his companion Frank Slady, and throwing his body from a train so that both arms and legs were cut off. The men were stealing a ride on a Northwestern train and Slady's body was found near Evansville. Schmidt was arrested at Brooklyn and brought here to jail. A third man, who escaped, is being sought for. Slady's body shows knife wounds, although Schmidt denies the charges. Both men were laborers.

WIFE ASKS PARDON FOR JOHN DIETZ

HAYWARD, Wis., July 18.—District Attorney Samuel J. Williams of Sawyer county has received summons asking pardon for John F. Dietz, now confined in the state penitentiary at Waupun. The move is brought about by Mrs. John F. Dietz through her attorneys, Naber of Marquette, Malone of Beaver Dam and McKenna of Fond du Lac. The hearing will be brought up before Governor McGovern at Madison on August 15.

FEAR FOR LIFE OF OLDEST GRADUATE

MADISON, Wis., July 18.—Some fear is felt by resident alumni of the University of Wisconsin for the safety of Levi Booth of Denver, Col., the oldest living graduate of the institution. Newspaper reports told of the devastation caused by a cloud-burst which flooded Cherry Creek, near Denver, Booth's home, leaving several deaths and many injured. Booth owned a fruit farm in the valley. He finished his university course in 1858.

ANTI-SALOON MAN INVESTIGATES HERE

W. C. Beers, an agent for the Wisconsin Anti-Saloon league, arrived in La Crosse today to investigate the granting of a saloon license to Olaf Larson, 801 Rose street. Mr. Beers declares that he came at the request of members of the La Crosse welfare league. Larson was granted a license at a recent meeting of the council on a decision by City Attorney Schubert that he had received a refusal on formerly occupied saloon property and was entitled to a license at the new place. The Larson case some time before that was taken to the supreme court of the state on the grounds that the legal number of saloon licenses had been granted before he applied. The case went by default, Larson's lawyers failing to appear before the court.

The next time he made an application he asked for a license on the grounds that he had a refusal on one building and that the legal number of saloons had not been exceeded. Agent Beers today held conferences with City Attorney Schubert, District Attorney James Thompson and members of the Welfare league. He declared that in his opinion the council had no right to grant Larson the license. He also said that it is not the business of the State Anti-Saloon league to prosecute cases of this kind.

FROM SECTION HAND TO SUPERINTENDENT

From penniless section hand in a strange country to superintendent of one of the biggest factories in the United States, and all in 26 years; that is the record of Otto Rudd, formerly of Sweden, now superintendent and director of the Simmons Manufacturing company, at Kenosha, Wis. Rudd arrived at Red Wing, Minn., in 1886. He knew no one in America, and as he was without money he was glad to get a job as a section hand at $1.75 per day. He wasn't willing to stay on the section, however, and soon left it. Eleven years ago he got a job in the Simmons factory. He was rapidly promoted, and recently was made superintendent and master over 2,400 men.

EVIDENCE IS DIVIDED

HALF OF 120 WITNESSES DECLARE HE WAS OFTEN DRUNK AND OTHER HALF SAY HE WAS ALWAYS SOBER

SEATTLE, Wash., July 18.—The investigation of the charge that Federal District Judge Hanford was habitually drunk is believed to have been closed by the Hanford investigating committee yesterday with the evidence of Attorneys Peterson and Whitlock. Both of them testified that they saw Hanford drunk. The committee will now devote its entire attention to the charges of abuses in connection with the appointment of receivers. So far 120 witnesses have been examined regarding the charges of drunkenness. Half of them were Hanford's friends and club mates. All of these swore the judge was not an habitual drunkard. The other half, representing all stations in life swore the judge was either drunk or they thought him so.

How to Absorb an Unlovely Complexion

(Phyllis Moore in Town Talk)
The face which is admired for its beauty must have a satin-smooth skin, pink and white and youthful looking. The only thing I know of that can make such a complexion out of an aged, faded, or discolored one—I mean a natural, not a painted, complexion—is ordinary mercurized wax. This remarkable substance literally absorbs the unsightly cuticle, a little each day, the clear, healthy, girlish skin beneath gradually peeping out until within a week or so it is wholly in evidence. Of course such blemishes as freckles, moth patches, liver spots, blotches and pimples are discarded with the old skin. If you will procure an ounce of mercurized wax at the drug store, use like cold cream every night, washing this off mornings, you'll find it a veritable wonder-worker.

Another valuable natural treatment is a wash lotion to remove wrinkles which can be easily prepared. Dissolve 1 oz. powdered salicylic acid in 1/2 pt. witch hazel. Bathe the face in this and you'll find it "works like magic."

OLD PARTIES ARE BERGER'S TARGET

Wisconsin Socialist Takes Slap at Roosevelt, Taft and Wilson in Speech in House

WASHINGTON, July 18.—In a political "battle royal" today in the house Representative Victor Berger, the Wisconsin socialist, lambasted all old and new parties to sound the socialist keynote of the campaign. "The capitalist class is just as willing to deal with the democrats as with the republicans," was Berger's opening hot shot. "The latter is conservative and the democrats reactionary."

"A glance at some of the honest 'progressives' who are now setting out to purify politics will at once demonstrate that Robin Hood's famous assemblage of outlaws had nothing on the gang that are now rallying around Theodore Roosevelt. "Wilson's election will not only perpetuate the power of the bosses and their machines, but will also inaugurate another area of 'prosperity'—as we had under Grover Cleveland, for men the type of Belmont and Ryan."

"It is unnecessary to explain where Mr. Taft stands. It is as natural for a man of his type to be allied with men like Root, Crane, Guggenheim, and Hammond as it is for a duck to take to water."

The socialist leader analyzed the support and backers of Colonel Roosevelt, branding them as "bosses" and machine leaders. "We must have a new constitution or a bloody revolution," Berger declared.

ROBS GERMAN GIRL AND DESERTS HER

MILWAUKEE, July 18.—Engaged to be married two years ago in Rheunen, Germany, to a soldier; persuaded to send hundreds of dollars to Chicago, where he fled shortly after their engagement, a deserter from the army; lured to America by his promises to marry her, and finally disillusioned by his failure yesterday afternoon to appear to secure a license—this was the story of 19 year old Rosalinde Hahnberger, as she related it in the county clerk's office, after waiting more than three hours for her fiancé.

CLERKS OF PARK STORE AT PICNIC

Outing of the Doerflinger Employes and Friends at Myrick Park Yesterday

The employes of the Doerflinger Park store held their annual picnic at Myrick park yesterday afternoon and evening. Hundreds of friends of the employes attended, going to the park early yesterday afternoon and joining in the amusements. Races of all kinds featured as the chief amusement. Several unique contests, originated by William Doerflinger and his assistants, were scheduled for the children and provided loads of fun for both "kids" and grownups. The contests pulled off were: Potato races for girls, three legged race, sack race, greased pole climbing, rope jumping, rope walking and several games.

An exciting game of indoor baseball was played at the lower end of the park during the early part of the afternoon by two picked teams. Dancing in the pavilion furnished pleasure for the hundreds of young people who were present, while the Andre band gave a concert.

With the close of the dance at 8 o'clock the picnic was brought to an end.

Refreshments of all kinds were served on the grounds by the association in charge. The picnic was given under the auspices of the William Doerflinger Employes' Mutual Benefit association, an organization created for the relief and assistance of employes during illness.

FORGING CASHIER SPENT $23,000

NEW YORK, July 18.—Pleas of guilty to forgery in the first and second degree, were entered in the court of general sessions by William M. Lawrence of Brooklyn. He was formerly cashier and confidential bookkeeper to D. Talmadge & Sons company and admits that he stole $23,000 of the firm's money which he spent having a good time in the Tenderloin.

While living in the Tenderloin resorts, Lawrence was a prominent member of the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian church in Brooklyn.

WOMAN ONCE INSANE?

CORONER HOFFMAN TO INVESTIGATE REPORT THAT OPERATOR AT WESTERN SPRINGS WAS IN ASYLUM

CHICAGO, July 18.—Coroner Hoffman began investigation of the report that Mrs. F. A. Wilcox who was on duty in the tower at Western Springs, Ill., when the Overland limited on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road, was wrecked and thirteen lives were lost, was the same Mrs. F. A. Wilcox, who was discharged from Dunning Insane hospital in July 1909.

The coroner has received an explanation that Mrs. Wilcox acknowledged a message from Hillsdale asking to be informed when number four arrived at Western Springs. In her statement Mrs. Wilcox said that on this message she held train No. 4 and that this mistake was responsible for the holding of the Overland limited, into which the fast mail train crashed a few moments later.

When visited at her home in La Grange, Mrs. Wilcox refused to open the door and also refused to admit or deny that she was at one time an inmate of the Dunning asylum.

GOVERNOR WANTS QUIET IN ORDER TO WRITE SPEECH ACCEPTING HIS NOMINATION

SEA GIRT, N. J., July 18.—That he will be obliged to seek some place where he can keep his presence secret in order to complete his speech and letter accepting the democratic presidential nomination, was the statement of Governor Wilson today. He made it plain that while he welcomed the many visitors who called to pledge support and was glad they came he believed he would have to secure absolute quiet so that he could get these important matters out of the way. The governor said he expected to confer with National Chairman McCombs tomorrow and that the treasurer and vice chairman of the national committee would then be announced. It is generally believed that Henry Morgenthau of New York will be treasurer and that William G. McAduoo will be vice chairman.

DISCUSS HUGHES BILL

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Consideration of the Hughes bill to create an industrial commission for the study of disputes between capital and labor was begun by the house. A commission of nine members, three of whom are to be labor leaders, is urged to report within three years.

RESUME DANGEROUS COURSE

WASHINGTON, July 18.—According to the chief hydrographer of the navy, Captain Cooper, the complaints of trans-Atlantic passengers against the slow time made by liners on the southern course have caused the liners to resume the spring course despite iceberg warnings.

"NO-BODY LOVES A BALD MAN"
Every day we see YOUNG men and women, who have gone prematurely grey. They immediately fall into the "Old Age" class, because grey hairs are so closely associated WITH OLD AGE.

It is extremely disconcerting and humiliating to be bald—to be grey when the years do not justify it. The girls laugh at the young men so married—the young men soon learn to discriminate between natural hair in its full bloom of health and NATURAL COLOR, and shabby looking grey and faded hair.

Give nature a chance. If she is encouraged, stimulated, assisted, she will give you a head of hair that you will be proud of. Give it to her. Use

CELEBRATE CENTURY OF PEACE IN 1914

Premier Borden and Sir Thomas Shaughnessy.

The centennial of peace between the United States and Great Britain and Canada will be appropriately celebrated in 1914. Peace commissions will be appointed by the various countries to work together on the project. On June 4 leading Canadians gathered at Ottawa to discuss plans for the celebration. Among the noted men at the conference were Premier Borden, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, President of the Canadian Pacific railway, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Senator Bandman, Sir Edmund Walker and Sir Louis Jette.

CALLS B. H. FRANKLIN

DARROW TO USE STATE WITNESS TOMORROW IN ATTEMPT TO IMPEACH HIS TESTIMONY

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 18.—Bert H. Franklin, star witness for the state, and Attorney Harding of Chicago, both of whom were identified with the defense in the McNamara cases, will be called as defense witnesses in the Darrow bribery trial tomorrow.

Darrow personally asked the court today to order both men to report. The nature of their testimony was not divulged, but it is believed they will be asked to corroborate the testimony of witnesses called recently in an effort to impeach Franklin's previous testimony.

WILSON DENIES HE GOT SON PLACE

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Secretary of Agriculture Wilson was "on the carpet" today before the house agricultural committee, to explain the connection of his son Jasper, formerly his private secretary, with a Colorado irrigation and reclamation concern. He denied that he aided in securing the job for his son, asserting that he did not even know what salary Jasper Wilson received. He also declared no government aid had been asked or given the land company.

REBEL ADVANCE CAUSES EXODUS

EAGLE PASS, Texas, July 18.—Another exodus of Americans from Torreon is on, because of a threatened attack on that city by a force of about 2,000 rebels. A party of refugees arriving at the border said that when they left Torreon the rebels were within six miles of the city. The federal garrison numbers only a few hundred men, and the Americans believe the rebels can easily take the town in case they attack. The object of the rebels is to destroy the railroad and prevent General Huerta from communicating with the south. The rebels are again becoming active in the state of Durango.

TWO WINONA MEN ARE ELECTROCUTED

WINONA, Minn., July 18.—Martin Daszkowski, 53, Winona's oldest mail carrier in point of years of service, and his son Edward, 19, were electrocuted last night here. Young Daszkowski, an amateur electrician, was erecting a workshop at the rear of his home. He grasped a live wire and dropped to the ground. The father hurried to his assistance and when he grasped the body of the young man he, too, fell. A physician, arriving shortly afterward, pronounced them both dead.

NELSON TO MEET SOLDIER TONIGHT

Ten Round Exhibition Bout with Frank Clark to Be Held at Camp McCoy

SPARTA, Wis., July 18.—Art Nelson, the pride of Sparta, who has won the hearts of western Wisconsin lovers of the manly art of self defense, by cleaning up every boxer who has been brought up against him, is scheduled for a ten round bout tonight at Camp McCoy, east of this city, when he will meet Frank Clark, a member of Co. F, of the Provisional regiment of the regular army. The men will use five ounce gloves and will weigh in at 185 pounds.

Nelson is the popular favorite with the sporting fraternity of this section, while Clark is of course backed by the soldiers as a sure winner. Nelson is the man who cleaned up Frank Ryan, the Chicago white hope in six rounds at Cataract a few weeks ago.

The winner of the Clark-Nelson contest will be challenged by Jack Parres of Merrill, to a bout in the same ring, on Sunday afternoon, July 21, at 3 o'clock. Parres has a record of 117 battles.

Two preliminary bouts will be held tonight prior to the big mill. These will be between Pete Frokker, of Sparta, and Tom Stafford of Co. H, six rounds, six ounce gloves, weight 150 pounds and Eddie Randall, champion of Co. F, and Abe Greenberg, champion of Co. G, six rounds, five ounce gloves, weight 122 pounds.

The semi-wind up will be between Red Moore, Co. F and Red O'Connell, Co. E, 150 pound men, who will go six rounds, using six ounce gloves. It is expected that this event will be witnessed by large delegations from La Crosse, Tomah, New Lisbon, Sparta, Viroqua, Black River Falls and other places.

TO TAKE UP SEA LAWS

HOUSE WILL DISCUSS BILLS RELATING TO MERCHANT MARINE AND FISHERIES OF THE COUNTRY

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The house rules committee has prepared special legislation for presentation to the house tomorrow to keep that body busy while the senate is cleaning up its affairs before adjournment.

It is planned to give special consideration to five bills before the house merchant marine and fisheries committee, including the senate bill regulating radio-telegraphy—drawn as a result of the Titanic tragedy—and the seamen's labor bill, which provides protection for seamen on merchant vessels. The rules committee has prepared a special rule to give these measures precedence.

Following the marine legislation the Lever bill for extension of agricultural university work, and the bill of Chairman Adamson of the house interstate commerce committee, providing for physical valuations of railroads will be presented for passage, if possible, before adjournment.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Hough returned yesterday from a trip to Buffalo and other eastern cities.

Mrs. George Batchelder of Minneapolis is visiting her niece, Mrs. D. Cunningham.

Mrs. J. Poehling returned this morning from an extended trip in the east.

Mrs. F. C. Suiter returned this morning from Chicago, where she went to meet her mother, Mrs. J. R. Mason, and daughter, of Plymouth, N. H., who will spend the summer with Dr. and Mrs. Suiter.

Miss Mildred Hampton of Decatur, Ill., is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Johnson.

SPARTA, WIS.

The hard storm of Monday evening was one of the steadiest down pours, lasting from about ten p. m. until along toward morning, that has been enjoyed in this locality for many months.

Roy Sweet, a young man employed in the Snedden Cigar store, sprained an ankle Sunday evening while going down the outside steps from the Hoffman home, where he boards. He is getting around on crutches and doing well.

Miss Mary Lewis went to Tomah on Monday to visit with friends for a couple of weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Beebe are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Givler of Naperville, Ill., who were popular Sparta residents up to a few years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Williams are spending a couple of weeks at Waukesha Beach for an outing.

Mrs. W. J. McFadden is up from Tomah to spend a couple of weeks at the home of her son, Sheriff McFadden and wife.

Will Wells, editor of the Democrat, and wife are expected to return this week from a month's visit at various eastern points. Mr. Wells has been spending some part of his time in becoming familiar with the intricacies of the linotype expecting to install one in his office in Sparta about the first of next month.

John Hebard of Wilton, who is operating on the C. N. & W. road, has been located at this station for a time.

Much excitement among the young people has been caused by the announcement of the marriage of two of their most popular friends, Harvey Kyhl, who is clerking in the clothing department of the Dodge and Davis, and Miss Doris Esch, who graduated from the high school this year and who is a daughter of Mrs. Louise Esch. They have rented a home on Jefferson avenue, and plan on beginning housekeeping soon.

Monday the Kilbourne Cream Station in this city was turned over to H. F. Hebard and Lynn Van Zandt by the former manager, Ed Jenkins, who, however, is remaining this week to give the young men more of an idea what the work will be like in their new venture.

108 MORE BIRTHS THAN DEATHS HERE

There were just 108 more births than deaths in La Crosse during the months of May and June, according to figures made public today in the office of the register of deeds. The births number 195, the deaths 87.

That Dan Cupid has also been on the alert as well as the stork is evidenced by the fact that there have been ninety marriages in the same two months, the majority of which occurred in June.

NOTED CANADIAN FINANCIER KILLED

TORONTO, Ont., July 18.—Losing the way in the darkness early today an automobile containing four passengers, was overturned into a ditch beside the road, and R. A. Smith, one of the best known financiers in the dominion, was instantly killed. J. Lorne Campbell, a local broker, and Victor Ross, financial editor of the Toronto Globe, each had a leg broken, and C. B. Brown, local school mistress, was badly bruised. The chauffeur was thrown clear and was uninjured.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Chas. H. Fletcher for over 30 years—the genuine Castoria. We respectfully call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in black. When the wrapper is removed the same signature appears on both sides of the bottle in red. Parents who have used Castoria for their little ones in the past years need no warning against counterfeits and imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing into their families spurious medicines. It is to be regretted that there are people who are now engaged in the nefarious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed counterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but worse yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do that for themselves, but the child has to rely on the mother's watchfulness. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

WILSON CONFERS WITH ADVISERS

WILSON WILL NOT RESIGN

Considered Definite that He Will Remain Governor of New Jersey Until Election

SEA GIRT, N. J., July 18.—Business was good today at the Sea Girt postoffice where Postmistress Mary A. Blakey was kept hustling to cancel the last of the thousands of letters which Governor Wilson has just finished writing in reply to letters and telegrams of congratulations. As the Sea Girt office is of the fourth class, its postmistress is paid according to the number of stamps cancelled. The Wilson candidacy therefore means much to Mrs. Blakey.

Plans were made at the "Little White House" today for a conference this afternoon between Governor Wilson and Chairman McCombs, and the following men prominent in the convention:

Committeeman Robert S. Hudspeth of New Jersey, Senator Gore of Oklahoma, Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania, Committeeman Josephus Daniels of North Carolina, Committeeman Joseph E. Davies of Wisconsin, Committeeman William Saulsbury of Delaware, Senator O'Gorman of New York, William G. McAdoo and Congressman Albert S. Burleson of Texas.

With Governor Wilson and Chairman McCombs, it was planned that these men should arrange the details of the governor's campaign. It is acknowledged that within a day or two they will be announced as the campaign committee in whose hands the conduct of the campaign will lie.

Governor Wilson has refrained from announcing any decision as to whether he will resign the governorship of New Jersey before election and as to whether he will take the stump. He still refused to make any definite statement today but it is understood now that he will not resign and that he will make campaign speeches in doubtful states, but will not make an extended stump tour. He will probably speak in Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, Ohio, Indiana, Colorado and on the Pacific coast.

OFFICER'S FRIEND HIRED MACHINE

The district attorney today that while the shooting was going on, Shapiro was working with his motor. His client, Levy said, was afraid to run away, knowing there were plenty of police in the neighborhood he was "stalling" so that the men could be caught.

One of the men in the car, Levy said Shapiro told him, ordered him to get a move on, and get away, hitting him in the forehead at the same time. "This murderer told my client," said Levy, "to get away in a hurry. The cops are all fixed and knew what was being pulled off, he told him, and everything has been arranged for a clean getaway, so get busy with that motor of yours. There was then nothing for Shapiro to do but to get out of the neighborhood. Someone will have to explain that remark as Shapiro intends repeating it when the inquest is resumed Monday."

MRS. A. E. ADAMS DIES AT HOME

Mrs. A. E. Adams, 506 South Third street, died of a complication of diseases at one of the local hospitals at 6 o'clock this morning after a long illness.

Mrs. Adams, who was 51 years old, was born in Brownsville, Minn., on July 14, 1861. She has resided in La Crosse for the last thirty years and is well known here.

Surviving her are her husband, Asa Adams, and three children, Norman G., Emma and Harvey. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon from the residence at 2 o'clock and from the First Baptist church at 2:30 o'clock, with Rev. W. A. Billings officiating at the services. Burial will be made in Oak Grove cemetery.

HOWARD FUNERAL YESTERDAY

Many friends and relatives attended the funeral of Mrs. C. E. Howard which was held from the First Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock yesterday with Rev. Jones and Rev. Magelsen officiating at the services. Many beautiful floral offerings were received. The pallbearers were Philip Tillman, E. C. Koops, Thomas Harrison, John Sheridan, J. S. League and Mr. Davidson. Burial was made in Oak Grove cemetery.

OLD SETTLER OF LA CROSSE DIES

Mrs. Anna Runckel Who Has Lived Here Since 1860 Is Taken by Stroke of Paralysis

A stroke of paralysis a week ago from which she never regained consciousness was the cause of the death of Mrs. Anna Runckel, one of the oldest residents of La Crosse, at the La Crosse hospital yesterday afternoon. Death came at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Runckel would have been sixty-nine years old had she lived until August 25.

Mrs. Runckel has been a resident of La Crosse since 1860. She was born in Loesnetz, in Saxony, and came to America in the late fifties. With her parents she settled in Trempealeau, later moving to La Crosse. Here she married to Adelbert Moeller, who died in 1868. Seven years later she married Louis Runckel of this city. He died in February, 1898.

Mrs. Runckel is survived by four children, Mrs. Adolph Moretz, Minneapolis; A. A. Moeller, and Carl and Louis Runckel of this city.

Mrs. Runckel was a member of the German Lutheran church, and was high in the esteem of a large circle of friends.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence, 147 South Seventh street, Rev. Gamm officiating. Frank Tillman is in charge of arrangements.

MADE EXTRA RECEIVER

ATTORNEY FOR CREDITORS SAYS BUT ONE WAS NEEDED AND HANFORD APPOINTED FAVORITE AS WELL

SEATTLE, Wash., July 18.—The investigation by the Hanford impeachment investigating committee of the charge that Federal Judge Hanford had appointed his friend, Sutcliffe Baxter as second receiver for the bankrupt Western Steel corporation when only one receiver was needed, was resumed today.

The statement that the judge had taken this action was made by Frederick Bausman, attorney for the petitioning creditors in the case, the Metropolitan Trust company of New York. Congressman McCoy questioned Bausman lengthily as to why it was necessary to name two receivers, each getting $5,000 for two months' work, when the corporation's business had been abandoned and their only duties were the taking of an inventory of the assets.

Further testimony was heard by the Hanford congressional committee in regard to Congressman McCoy's charge that J. S. Goldsmith of Seattle, blocked the plans of Seattle merchants to present evidence before the committee against Federal Judge Hanford in connection with charges of abuse of receivership. H. J. Klock testified that a meeting of the merchants was held at which Goldsmith said: "While I admit that the old man (Hanford) may have outlived his days of usefulness on the bench he is not much worse than the other federal judges."

WILL ROAST COLONEL

STANLEY STEEL COMMITTEE DIVIDED ON STRENGTH OF CRITICISM THEY WILL GIVE T. R. ON T. C. & I. DEAL

WASHINGTON, July 18.—How strong shall be their denunciation of Col. Roosevelt for his alleged services to the Steel trust in its absorption of the Tennessee Coal & Iron company was the knotty dispute which deadlocked for hours today the republican members of the Stanley Steel investigating committee. Scathing criticism of Roosevelt is said to be demanded by Representative Gardner of Massachusetts. Other republicans are reported to be holding out against any "roast" for the colonel.

FISHERMAN ACCUSED OF ATTACKING THREE

Albert J. Bates, a fisherman living on the lower end of Barron's island opposite La Crosse, was arrested late yesterday on a warrant sworn out by Ed Paulubitski, an employee of a local brewery and arraigned before Judge C. L. Baldwin on a charge of assault. He pleaded not guilty and his case was set for trial tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the county court. In default of $100 bail he is awaiting his trial in the county jail.

Paulubitski, the complainant, says that he and two companions, Frank Putaski and Joe Petrick were rowing a boat near Bates' house on the Minnesota bank of the river when suddenly Bates came after them in a skiff. He alleges that Bates attacked the trio with an oar and that he broke Putaski's arm. He says that Bates finally climbed into their boat and placed a pair of handcuffs on him and declared that he was under arrest. He then declares that their boat drifted upon a sandbar and they all got out and that Bates after "calling them down" said he would "let them go this time" and unlocked the handcuffs.

The complainant assigns no reason for the attack. Bates declared that the three men insulted two girls who were visiting him in his home. Bates was arrested the first time he appeared in this city since the fight which is said to have taken place on the Fourth of July.

LESS RAGTIME IS PLEA OF SINGER

Mme. Sophia Stephali in Song-recital Deplores Tendency Toward Bad Music

"What we need in this world is less ragtime and more lifetime music," said Madame Sophia Stephali, last night, lecturing on "The Influence of Music." Madame Stephali gave a most interesting and delightful song recital at the old Y. M. C. A. building to a fair sized crowd which, however, was very appreciative and continually evinced its pleasure by repeated applause.

The first part of the program was given over to a short lecture by Mme. Stephali in which she traced the development of music through the days of the cave man to the present time and compared the weird and fantastic efforts of primitive human life with the polished arias of modern prima donnas. Songs, she declared, can produce every emotion and the reason for the lack of appreciation of good music today she attributed to not enough sound musical education. Continuing, she said that there is nothing greater than song for the moral and spiritual uplift of the people.

Miss Bernice Lathrop presided at the piano and for the first musical number played excerpts from "Tannhauser March" by Liszt-Wagner in an acceptable manner although the piano was a trifle bangy in tone.

Mme. Stephali followed with a variety of songs which displayed her versatility as an artist. Perhaps her best efforts were the Cavatine and aria from Meyerbeer's "Der Prophet" although "A Perfect Day" by Carrie Jacobs Bond was a particularly pleasing number. Mme. Stephali possesses a mezzo-soprano voice of great power which she is able to use with good results in her high as well as her low notes. Miss Lathrop accompanied the soloist in a most sympathetic manner.

This afternoon Mme. Stephali will lecture on "Music and Childhood." The lecture is particularly for children as the songs will be mostly of the children kind. This evening "Music and Life" is the subject and a special program of songs will be given to illustrate the lecture. Mme. Stephali is here under the auspices of the W. R. C.

JAP-GERMAN ALLIANCE

BELIEVED TRIP OF PRINCE KATURA MEANS ATTEMPT TO FORM PACT BETWEEN MIKADO AND KAISER

BERLIN, July 18.—That the tour of Europe recently begun by ex-Premier Prince Katsura of Japan was undertaken to negotiate an alliance between the mikado and the kaiser, is asserted in diplomatic circles here today. It is said the Japanese want to dissolve partnership with the English and are prepared to guarantee protection to German interests in the orient in the event of an Anglo-German war. The kaiser is reported to look askance on the plan, however, principally because he thinks it would embarrass him in the event of friction between Japan and the United States.

AFTER PATENT MONOPOLY.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Assaults upon the patent monopoly established by the supreme court in the Dick mimeograph decision, were incorporated in a bill reported today to the house. The three principal provisions are: Prohibit purchase of patents by corporations desiring to secure a monopoly upon patents in a general industrial line. Permit use of patented machines with materials irrespective of restrictions. Amendment of the Sherman anti-trust law to punish patent monopoly.

KIDNAP ALLEGES HEIRESS NEW ORLEANS, La., July 18.—Following the receipt of a "black hand" letter demanding $2,000, Miss Martha Garnier, 22, was kidnapped early today by two masked men. This afternoon she was found gagged and tied in a sack in an abandoned house. Miss Garnier is in a serious condition, having been cruelly beaten by her abductors. She is said to be wealthy.

$30,000 INCOME TAX

CITY OF LA CROSSE TO PAY PRACTICALLY ALL OF ASSESSMENT TO BE COLLECTED FROM ENTIRE COUNTY

The state will receive about $30,000 in income taxes from the residents of the city of La Crosse according to a statement by Income Tax Assessor J. E. Keizer today, and the amount received from the remainder of the county will be "hardly worth mentioning."

"The total taxable incomes in this city," said Mr. Keizer, "are about $1,234,000, the average rate of taxation is 2 1/2 per cent. This will give the state about $30,000 which is slightly more than was predicted when I started work on the income tax lists. The amount that the state will collect from the county residents of La Crosse county is hardly worth mentioning."

Up to the first $1,000 income the rate is one per cent; up to $2,000 is 1 1/2 per cent; to $3,000 it is 1 1/2 per cent and so on until the income reaches $12,000 when the rate jumps to 6 per cent. There are several incomes in La Crosse that will pay the six per cent rate."

Mr. Keizer has not as yet footed up the amount of taxes to be collected in Monroe county.

NO BRIBE NECESSARY

SAN FRANCISCO PUBLISHER SAYS ARRANGEMENT FOR McNAMARAS TO CONFESS WAS MADE DAY AFTER ALLEGED BRIBERY

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 18.—Fremont Older, publisher of a San Francisco paper, was called to the stand for cross-examination when the Darrow bribery trial was resumed today. The story he told on the stand yesterday regarding an alleged agreement between the state and the defense in the McNamara murder trial was fiercely attacked by the prosecution, especially Older's dynamiting the Los Angeles Times had been concluded on the day Darrow is alleged to have bribed jurors. The defense offered this testimony to establish the contention that Darrow could not have had any motive for bribing jurors in the McNamara case.

Great interest is being taken by Darrow in Older's testimony, the defendant apparently having determined to stake all on proving that there was no necessity for him to bribe anyone.

"DEATH FARM" HOAX

NEIGHBORS OF ALLEGED PLACE OF MYSTERIOUS SICKNESS LAUGH AT STORIES OF TEN QUEER DEATHS

CARLYLE, Ill., July 18.—Residents in this vicinity today were surprised to hear a tale about the Ackerman "death farm," said to be located near Mount Vernon. The "death farm" is forty miles from Mount Vernon and ten miles north-east of Carlyle. Today it developed that such a person as Joseph Ackerman, reported to have died yesterday, making the latest of ten victims, was not known.

The great number of deaths said to have occurred on the farm was accounted for when old residents said that a family of five, whose names are not recalled, died on the farm about 25 or 30 years ago. In 1906 Godfrey Palm, his wife and daughter, died within a few months of each other. The latest death was Ackerman's. Persons who have investigated the deaths on the farm attribute them to "milk sickness" caused by drinking milk from cows that had eaten poisonous weeds.

BOY STRUCK BY CEMETERY CAR

Maurice Levy, 1514 La Crosse street, a small boy, was struck by a cemetery street car late yesterday afternoon as he was crossing the track near the baseball park. The boy was on his way to the Doerflinger's employes' picnic in Myrick park with several companions and did not see the car approaching until it was too late to get out of the way. Although the motorman made an attempt to stop the car the boy was hit by the fender and knocked off the track. He was taken to the La Crosse hospital, where it was found that his injuries consisted of bruises. He was not seriously injured.

TO VISIT SON "Judge" Herman Langstadt is making plans for a visit with his son, Morris, in Minneapolis, during the Saengerfest, which will be held there shortly. The judge expects to stay a week at the home of his son. He expects to start tomorrow.

HAS SOLUTION OF PANAMA TROUBLE

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts Would Have the Government Pay Tolls for U. S. Ships

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, who was one of the members of the senate foreign relations committee at the time the Hay-Pauncefote treaty with Great Britain was ratified, told the senate this afternoon that at the time of consideration of that pact he "certainly thought the treaty left to the United States the right to charge what tolls it pleased on her own vessels."

Despite this belief, the Massachusetts senator declared, however, that he would oppose free tolls for American vessels, on the ground that this government could not afford to be charged with breaking faith. He favored charging tolls until the Hague tribunal could adjudicate the matter, though admitting that the United States would probably lose. Lodge intimated that the best solution would be to have this government pay tolls on all American vessels, thus granting them a subsidy.

"My position," Lodge continued, "is that no foreign power can come in here and say to us what arrangements we shall make without regard to our shipping."

Senator Reed suggested that tolls could be charged American vessels in the general bills, and that congress might pass an additional bill to pay certain amounts to the owners of American vessels, "which might happen to be the same amount that the ships paid for passing through the canal."

The granting of exemptions from tolls was opposed by McCumber (Rep., N. D.). He said the phrase "on terms of equality to all nations," in the Hay-Pauncefote treaty afforded no opportunity for exempting the United States.

"In coastwise trade, United States ships have a monopoly," said Nelson (Rep., Minn.), "and to allow them free use of the Panama canal would simply strengthen their monopoly."

STATE FISH AND GAME MEN TO MEET

J. P. Bird, president of the Wisconsin Game and Fish Protective and Propagative league, which was recently organized at a convention in Madison through the efforts of the La Crosse Hunting and Fishing association, has called a meeting of the state league at the La Crosse club at 7 o'clock this evening. Several out of town members of the board will be present. Further work of organization and the drawing up of by-laws will be considered.

Eight hundred well grown sunfish, 400 black bass and 900 channel catfish were received by the La Crosse county association yesterday from the federal hatchery at Homer, Minn., and planted in several different places on the Mississippi river.

MINNEAPOLIS MAN STRONG IN TOURNNEY

DENVER, Col., July 18.—Harry Legg, the Minneapolis golfing crack, is expected by many to figure prominently in the semi-finals, or finals of the fourteenth annual tournament of the Western Golf association as the result of his brilliant play in the morning, round today, when he returned Lawrence Bromfield of Denver, five down for the 18-holes.

MAY GET PAROLE BY ACTING AS SPY

COLUMBUS, O., July 18.—Chas. L. Warriner, serving six years in Ohio penitentiary for embezzlement of $650,000 as treasurer of the Big Four railroad, may be paroled Aug. 16, when the parole board considers his application. He is said to have won favor with the board by gathering evidence against a penitentiary clerk recently indicted for embezzlement.

JAMES B. McNAMARA INCORRIGIBLE IN PEN

SAN QUENTIN, Cal., July 18.—As the result of insubordination, James B. McNamara, confessed dynamiter of the Los Angeles Times building, is in the incorrigible ward on the top floor of the state prison here, in solitary confinement. Warden Hoyle sent him to the "solitary" because he refused to line up in the prison yard.

PLEAD GUILTY THEN APPEAL

In spite of the fact that they pleaded guilty to a statutory charge in county court yesterday, Bruno Brewer and Kate McGraw appealed to the circuit court when they were fined $25 and costs apiece by Judge C. L. Baldwin late yesterday. The complaint was brought against the couple by Patrolman William Horoschuk.

PHONE GIRLS STRIKE

STURGEON BAY, Wis., July 18.—Because they refused to take a back seat for a new comer in their ranks, the ten telephone girls employed on the local exchange went on a strike. There is little or no telephone service today as a result.

BURNS IN HOTEL

HURLEY, Wis., July 18.—Ramsey Andrews, Superior, Wis., was burned to death today when fire destroyed the Hurley Hotel. Another guest narrowly escaped the flames. The fire also destroyed two other buildings. Loss $25,000.

HAS KEY TO TROUBLE

SUGGESTS NEW PRIMARIES TO SETTLE PRIVILEGE OF T. R. SUPPORTERS TO REMAIN ON STATE G. O. P. TICKETS

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Calling of new primary elections to decide the right of Roosevelt electors and pro-Roosevelt candidates to remain on state regular republican tickets was a solution of the political mix up today suggested by George W. Norris, the Nebraska "progressive" who was recently nominated for senator.

HUTCHINSON, Kas., July 18.—The first real test in the republican national committee's attempt to keep the names of presidential electors who have declared for Roosevelt off the regular republican ballots in the primaries in August will come up in the courts here next Monday. Fred Stanley, national committeeman from Kansas, has obtained an injunction in the district court at Newton, prohibiting every county clerk in the state from putting the names of these Roosevelt electors on the primary ballot. Should the court rule in favor of the "regular" republicans and make the injunction permanent the Roosevelt forces will seek to get the names of their electors on the ballots by petition.

INTERNAL WAR IN STRIKE SITUATION

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 18.—The mill strike situation which has completely tied up three-quarters of the biggest textile mills in this city is worse today, because of an open break between the Industrial Workers of the World and the unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor materialized. Officials of the craft unions refused today to co-operate with the I. W. W. and the feeling between the two organizations is so intense that serious trouble is feared. There was no disorder at the mill gates when the strike breakers went to work today.

WOULD KEEP P. M.'S OUT OF POLITICS

WASHINGTON, July 18.—A wholesale political gag for postmasters and other federal officeholders is provided in the bill of Representative Hull (Dem.), favorably reported today to the house by the house reform in civil service committee. The measure bars all federal appointees, under pain of a fine of $500 and summary dismissal from office from being a delegate to any district, state or national convention, or becoming "perniciously active in politics."

SAYS RYAN DID NOT CONTRIBUTE

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The senate committee investigating campaign contributions of 1904 and 1908 did not secure much enlightening information from W. F. Sheehan of New York, chairman of the democratic executive committee, today. Sheehan said the entire democratic fund in 1904 was about a million dollars and of this amount about $200,000 was contributed on condition that it be expended in New York state.

Sheehan said if Thomas F. Ryan had contributed to the campaign he knew nothing about it. The witnesses said the committee sent money to Colorado, Nebraska, and other western states.

ARGUES FOR MRS. MORROW

CHICAGO, July 18.—"I saved his life when he tried to die—why should I take the life that I saved?" These words were from the testimony of Mrs. Rene B. Morrow, accused slayer of her husband, Charles B. Morrow, were used by the attorney for the society woman, as the basis of his argument to the jury today. Mrs. Morrow had made the declaration that she had saved her husband's life on four occasions when he attempted to commit suicide.

START LINDLOFF CASE

CHICAGO, July 18.—Assistant State's Attorney Smith today began the preparation of their case against Mrs. Louise Lindloff, indicted yesterday for the murder of her son, Arsenic Lindloff on June 12 by arsenic poisoning. Mrs. Lindloff is suspected of the poisoning of four other members of her family.

LEAVES TOBACCO FIRMS OUT

NEW YORK, July 18.—Judge Lacombe in the United States court today denied the motion to include the Liggett & Myers Tobacco company and the P. Lorillard company as co-defendants in the damage suit brought under the anti-trust law by J. A. Locker & Company against the American Tobacco company.

REBELS LOOT STORES

EL PASO, Tex., July 18.—After being looted of all its provisions by Gen. Rojas, the rebel leader, the store of the Madera company at Madera has been closed. Twenty thousand dollars worth of supplies were taken from the company stores in two days. Other stores in Madera were similarly drained.

BABY STRANGLES

MARSHFIELD, Wis., July 18.—Andrew Bangart, infant son of John Bangart, is dead as a result of catching a sleeve of his dress on a nail in the wall which drew the neckband tight and strangled the child. The mother was absent in another room.

CARDS WOULDN'T PART WITH KONEY

Bresnahan Denies Rumors of Trade; Considers Ed. Most Valuable Player on the Team

Rumors to the contrary notwithstanding, there is no chance of the St. Louis Cardinals trading Ed Koney to some other club and the announcements that he is being traded are all emphatically denied by Manager Bresnahan. The St. Louis Sporting News has the following to say regarding the local boy:

They may roast Roger Bresnahan, without a comeback—as long as they don't insinuate that he's crooked—but they can't kid him. For that reason he bobs up in protest when they print a story that he is about to trade Ed Koney and Mike Mowrey to the Boston Braves for a job lot of John Montgomery Ward's doubtful talent. When Bresnahan was asked if such a trade was on he is said to have answered that he wouldn't trade Koney alone for the Boston National league franchise, which was only a figure of speech, of course, since Roger couldn't use a franchise personally, and Mrs. Britton already has everything in that line that she can well look after.

It just goes to show, however, the high regard that the Cardinal manager has for his Big Train. Indeed, Bresnahan has entered Koney in the Chalmers automobile competition as "most valuable player to his team," and in truth, it's hard to see where any one can have it on Edward, unless it be Larry Doyle, who really ought to be barred, for any man who can't eat lobster without getting sick has no business with an auto.

Averages indicate Koney's worth to his team. He is not only batting near .350, but he is one of the leading run getters of the league, he is one of the three men who have passed the century mark in base hits, he stands fifth in total bases hit for, is one of the leading base stealers, ranks near the top as a sacrificer, leads in his position at fielding. Well, if there is any department in which he can not be considered cream it is not mentioned in the detailed figures. And daily Koney does things that can not be put in figures, such as reaching out and taking wide throws that no one else would get, and all that. Sure, Koney is worth as much as the Boston franchise, even if a trade could be reached on that basis and he won't be traded for anything Boston has.

SUPERIOR ENTERS A CLAIM FOR BAILEY

SUPERIOR, Wis., July 18.—President Sommer of the Superior Baseball club, has wired Secretary Farrell of the national commission, asking him to immediately instruct Russ Bailey, late manager of the Eau Claire club, to leave the Wausau team and report at once to Superior. The local magnate claims Bailey accepted terms with Superior and that he now is playing with Wausau in violation of the rules of organized baseball. In support of his contention Mr. Sommer has sent a copy of a telegram from Bailey to Kid Taylor on July 4, in which Russ said it would be impossible for him to get away for a few days, that he would join as soon as possible. Previous to the dating of the telegram Taylor and Bailey had made a contract over the phone in which salary and other matters had been agreed upon. Russ promised to sign as soon as he reached Superior. He was told to come at once and when the Superior authorities did not hear from him a telegram was sent asking him to be here July 13, sure. He failed to answer and the next Sommer heard of him was day before yesterday when he hit out a couple of singles and a home run as a member of the Wausau team in the Wisconsin-Illinois league, and won a game for the Lumberjacks.

When Cravath came up in the third, the Philadelphia-Chicago game was tied. He tripled, bringing in two runs, coming in later himself. Another tie in the eighth. He made it a home run this time.

A new bucket of dope please. Matty opened his thirteenth year with the Giants by driving away the gruesome Jinx. And the Cubs did not win against Philadelphia.

CLOTHIERS PLAY WINONA SUNDAY

Winona's fast independent team, the Shellhas, will meet the strong local semi-pros, the La Crosse Clothing company next Sunday, and if last season's battle between these clubs can in any way be repeated, when the Clothiers defeated the up river team at Winona by the score of 1 to 0 in a great battle, the local fans will have the chance of witnessing a good article of baseball. Bartels, who has held opposing teams scoreless in 34 out of the 36 innings in which he has officiated on the mound for the local club will be here to do the pitching while Griffin will be behind the bat.

LAJOIE OUT OF GAME

CLEVELAND, July 18.—Nap Lajoie will not be seen in the Nap line-up for at least ten days. He has returned to his home in South Euclid for treatment of his injured leg. Larry's left leg, bruised by a batted ball, has become infected. His right foot also is bruised.

Joe Jackson was in the home run business, too, clinching the last encounter of an easy victory over the Highlanders, score 5 to 1. The Giants' lead is now ten games. Devore, Doyle and Becker held with a three bagger each.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Philadelphia 6; Chicago 5
CHICAGO, July 18.—The Phillies checked the Cubs' winning streak yesterday. Cravath's homer in the eighth won for the visitors. The Cubs got twelve hits and five passes and still had to lose. Cheney held the Phillies to eight swats. Moore was effective in the pinches. Score: R H E
Philadelphia .023000010—6 8 0
Chicago .000001200—5 12 3
Batteries: Moore and Killifer; Cheney and Archer.

Brooklyn 7; St. Louis 1
ST. LOUIS, July 18.—Nap Rucker was too much for the Cardinals yesterday and the Superbas won the opening game of the series, 7 to 1. The southpaw gave but seven hits and was master of the battle all the way. Score: R H E
Brooklyn .020020000—7 13 0
St. Louis .000001000—1 7 3
Batteries: Rucker and Miller; Sallee, Dale, Zackert and Bresnahan.

New York 1; Pittsburgh 2
PITTSBURGH, July 18.—The Giants, evidently in their early season form, easily defeated the locals yesterday, 10 to 2. The game was characterized by heavy hitting and sensational fielding. Score: R H E
New York .020030014—10 13 3
Pittsburgh .000000011—2 7 4
Batteries: Mathewson and Meyers; Camnitz, Adams and Gibson.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Chicago 1-3; Boston 0-7
BOSTON, July 18.—The Red Sox and White Sox split the doubleheader at Fenway park yesterday, the Windy City boys winning the first game, 1 to 0, while the leaders captured the second by a score of 7 to 3. Scores:
First game— R H E
Chicago .000000000—1 6 2

FAN-ATICAL FANCIES

What has become of the critics who picked the Chicago Cubs as the team to fight it out with Boston for the cellar championship? During the winter and early in the season when Chance's machine was going badly and the Giants were sailing smoothly, many consigned the former champs to a second division berth but at the present time when Chicago looks to be the team which has the best chance to beat out McGraw's crew it doesn't look much like the Cubs will finish close to Boston. The Cubs have taken four straight out of the last five games from the Giants in addition to which Chicago has won eight of its last nine games, while the Giants have captured but two of their last nine combats.

The two Chicago clubs have the championship color scheme of all the leagues. The Cubs have Brown and Lavender, while the White Sox have White. All of them are pitchers.

One critic says that the St. Louis Browns are consistent in their playing at any rate. According to the dope the Browns had won 24 games and lost 53 battles on July 10, 1911, and their record on the same day this year was also won 24, lost 53.

Hugh Duffy calls Ray Schalk, the Milwaukee catcher, the best backstop in the league and he praises the ability of this young receiver highly. It is said that most of the big league clubs are after the services of the catcher.

The theory that high prices ball players are not always the best has been proven many times this year. Lavender, the Cubs' twirler, who came near being shipped back to the minor leagues without even a trial, and who was overlooked by all the scouts for three years, was the man to break up $11,000 Rube Marquard's winning streak and he beat $22,500 Marty O'Toole in a hot 12-inning battle.

After getting away to a good start Mike Malloy's Wausau team is going badly and it looks as if they will have to put up a good fight to stay in the first division in the W. I. league. At present Wausau is occupying fourth place in the standing of the teams.
